We All Have a Voice!

Campus Empowerment Program

VALUE YOUR VOICE AND VISION! SHARE WITH THE WORLD

Step up to a Summer 2015 Leadership Workshop!

Become leaders for social change in your school! Make your difference today!
This exciting workshop empowers teachers, sponsors and young adults to value their voice and vision

Meet the We All Have a Voice Program Leaders

The workshop will be led by a powerful team. Melinda Forward is a National Board Certified Teacher with 25 years of classroom experience and 20 years of experience as a nationally-recognized teacher-trainer. Thomas Sena works in outreach and education helping people with disabilities communicate with friends and family. He also has extensive experience in journalism and media, with on-air experience in radio. They are both outstanding models for the opportunities everyone has to change the world by standing up and speaking out. On top of everything, they are fun, engaging, and inspiring people!

Young Adults: High School & Middle School students

- Create a movement in your school and design a life-changing campus-wide project. You can do it!
- Share your ideas with confidence in an encouraging environment. You are brilliant!
- Meet inspiring speakers and find your passion. Shine!
- Join a group of intelligent, creative young people who care about the world. Believe!
- Learn how to create change at your school. Learn!
- Explore and apply your leadership skills. Lead!

We are powerful.

We all have a unique voice.

All of us can make a difference.

We change the world by changing ourselves.

Project Sponsors:

- Guide development of Core Values & literacy skills.
- See Common Core in action with life skills.
- Help students realize their passions and skills.
- Create new connections within your community.
- Inspire and encourage "quiet" leaders to step up.
- Acquire the structure to direct a powerful student-movement.
- Learn to use Ted talks as foundations for Inquiry conversations.
- See the power in thought-provoking Service Learning projects.
- Experience Project-Based Learning at its best!

Join the movement that changes communities with powerful conversations! You can do it!

Pre-workshop Challenge – Get your team together and start preparing for your project now!
Conduct a community survey to find out how everyone at your school thinks and feels about having a voice. Then create a 3-minute video that explains the story of your school and the results of your survey. Submit your video to weallhaveavoice.org. Be one of the first two schools to complete the challenge and your school will win an iPad or flip video camera to help document your project!

Summer 2015 Leadership Workshop: We All Have a Voice!

Workshop Day One – Sponsors: Be Inspired and Empowered to Lead Student Movements!

Project Sponsors learn how to organize and manage student movements. Sponsors will learn all they need to know to be comfortable introducing projects and leading students to make a difference in their school.

Workshop topics include:

- Brain research from Eric Jensen supporting community school projects and "Gaudy Goals"
- Engaging students with the high-interest We All Have a Voice! program curriculum
- Common Core skills embedded in meaningful program activities
- Literacy skills and life skills as key components to each project
- Comprehensive Curriculum Guide with step-by-step lesson plans and PowerPoint
- Models of successful projects in progress in an urban Title I school
- Strategies for guiding students through project development and formal proposals
- Project-based learning – Student-driven projects engage all students as leaders
- Tools for communication and documentation with Edmodo, Tumblr, Twitter, and more

Workshop Day Two – Young Adults: Be Empowered as Leaders for Social Change!

Teams of students join their teachers/sponsors to learn the leadership skills necessary to create, plan, propose, find funding, and bring to life special projects to unite their school community.

Workshop topics and key questions include:

- What does it mean to have a voice?
- What is your story? What are your talents and passions?
- What is the story of your school? Why are you special?
- How can you make a difference in your school?
- Why does your school need you to create a special project?
- What are the keys to connecting with each other, using media for social change?
- How can you share your school's story with the world by creating a web site?
