

Meet the TEAM

Melinda Forward, NBCT is an innovator with practical and powerful strategies to engage students in schools, especially powerful in underperforming schools. Her Inspiration SUPERSTARS ACADEMY helps students learn skills to design Inspirational Service Learning Projects to fuel student achievement, develop relationships, and build optimism. Based in cutting-edge neuroscience and research, this unique program is intentionally designed so schools have simple, yet powerful new tools to overcome obstacles of poverty.

Thomas Sena, MBA, specializes in journalism, media, and outreach. Growing up, he was a quiet introvert who dealt with anxiety. With the help of caring adults, he achieved his dream of working in sports media. Now Thomas is empowering young people with the same confident mindset that changed his life. Thomas specializes in training students in media relations so they can Stand Up and Speak Out with the world beyond school.

I didn't think I had a voice before. I was a quiet person with not many friends. This program helps me believe in myself and not let obstacles get me down. It gives everyone the opportunity to express themselves.

The School Culture Project

*Helping schools build inspiring environments
so everyone thrives.*

Are you struggling with engagement, discipline, and negativity?

This special training program could be a game-changer for you and your school!

We work with inspired leaders in high-poverty schools who want to help students, who do not feel like they have a voice, learn tools to empower themselves so they can inspire others and pass the power of positivity on.

Our mission:

100% of students will graduate inspired and empowered to create the world they imagine.
